AIRPLANES DEPART ON THEIR RETURN JOURNEY

Lieutenant J. M. Fetters started back to Mather Field in California in the 150 horse power Curtiss airplane this morning at 8 o'clock, flying over the city and then circling to the west and following the line of the Southern Pacific. The first stop scheduled was for Montello, Nevada, to take on gasoine. The second stop was to be Elko, where more gasoline would be taken, with Battle Mountain for the third

Word received by the Standard at oon stated that the small plane had nade the stops at Montello and Elko and at 11:45 a. m. was going over Car-lin, where Lieutenant Curtis and a nechanician smashed their plane last Friday while en route to Ogden.

At the same time the big de Havi land plane, driven by Lieutenant William Beck and Sergeant F. Reed, who departed at 5 p. m. last night and stopped at Elko, passed over Winnenucca, having left Elko this morn-

Before leaving this morning, Lieuenant Fetters stated that he would oin the de Haviland machine this eve ning at Reno, although his orders called for him to make several stops enroute, including a detour of about 40 miles to Fallon. According to the last reports he was going according to the announced schedule.

STRIKE OCCURS ON THE WASHINGTON

A strike of teamsters and engineers working for the Moran Paving company on the north Washington avenue ontract was called this morning when the time arrived for the new schedule adopted by the unions to go into effect, and the paving activities were almost at a standstill today.

The strike was caused on account of the refusal of the paving company to recognize an alleged agreement nade some time ago between P. J. Moran and the teamsters' union, according to a statement given out by Roy Woodward, business agent for the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs and Stable Employes.

"The schedule we asked for was $4 day of 8 hours with time and a half or over time," said Mr. Woodward. This schedule was set to go into effect this morning. Mr. Moran agreed o the schedule when it was first brought to his attention, but this morning, when we inquired about the schedule, it was Mr. Moran who informed us that the new company would not grant the schedule. We will not return to work until the schedule is granted. There are about thirty teamsters and truck drivers and five en-gineers affected by the tie-up."

during the Golden Spike celebration parade, were highly complimented yes-Jones, head of the department of public safety of which the police department is a branch.

"The Boy Scouts did wonderful work in assisting the police department," said Commissioner Jones. "They are entitled to the thanks of the community. Their work was very efficient, taken care of that there were no accidents. We cannot say too much for the Mass., 309 per cent. Scouts.

Three floats in the Golden Spike parade last Saturday that received favorable comment were the floats of John Farr Coal company, Sidney Stevens Implement company, and George A. Lowe company.

The George A. Lowe company was represented by a replica of Jupiter No. 60, which was constructed by the company employes entirely of pieces of bardware.

Sidney Stevens company's float consisted of a delivery guto body, mounted upon a large truck with canopy top, around the sides of which were Victory loan posters.

John Farr Coal company had three floats consisting of loads of coal, decorated with national colors and liberty

BUILDING IN OGDEN

For gain in building during the month of March, 1919, over the month of March, 1918, Ogden stands at the head of all cities in the United States, head of all cities in the United States. the increase being 1,000 per cent. while the next ranking city, Cambridge, Mass., has 302 per cent. The comparison is made from figures compiled by the city engineer's office and a list of the department of labor Many other towns in the United States showed an enormous increase over the corresponding month of the previous year, but the closest figure to Ogden was from Worcester, with an increase of 309 per cent. In a comparison of construction

THE GREAT BOON.

Rippling Rhymes

The boon of peace is good as wheat succeeding years of sadness; it took the coldness from our feet, and filled our hearts with gladness. All day I speak about the boon, in crisp, well chosen phrases; at night I sit beneath the moon, and boost the same like blazes. It's good to wake at dawn, indeed, and cut some sprightly capers, and not be half afraid to read the war sey came up Skinny sed, Do you wunt to get in a good game, Persey? and Persey sed, Wat? and Skinny sed, Wy, Its a sintch for you, me and Benny do frunt steps not tawking about eny-people saying, "Alas!
